The most comrfrable and peacfull place for me is the back garden of my home, I've such a lot of fun, sad, and happy memories in this place it's remind me of my childhood with my cusins, we were alway gathering there after the lunch and talk aBout our day at school yupping aBout our classmate and our problems also we play the hiding game and making a cake with the sand, one of the lovely moment that we grows a flowers, and that made it look more Beautifull and the flowers still stay untill Now, sometime I sit on it and listening to the music that we used to listen to it together and remember the best days of my life. I miss them too much and I wish we could do all these stuff without thinking of any thing again. and forget aBout what happend that made us apart
