Title: .....

I agree with this opinion.

because male and female in the age after 21 can to marry and open new life, off cours they are adult to face any diffecult circumestanse of life because thier have balanced behaivour with each other. They can raise children properly and bear responsibily for them and build a new generation. This age is suitable to marry because it has less divorce rate between couples than the age before 21.

They act wisely with each other in front of their children and build generation with out psychological problem.

Marry life is give respect between couples and thier children. Marry life to contienue should be the cauples respect and love each other.
