Original Text:

Title: My Beginning in English

I have started in English when I was fifteen by watching TV a lot, Especially the cartoon movies those shown on TV channels, In addition There is an environment surround me like my father is an architect works with foreigners when he calls to them on the phone I listen to him carefully but the main reason make me good in English is English-speaking animation, Moreover practicing with anyone speaks English, For instance My uncle's wife she is British. So the main cause and influence is practicing in everyday life, I think its very effective to develop the language.

To improve the language quickly and effectively listening is the most important skill in acquiring language the comes after directly speaking without any hesitation. I will add more.
